Handwritten musical notation on a single page of aged parchment. The page features ten horizontal staves. The notation consists of black square neumes on red four-line staves. The text is written in a Gothic script, with several large, decorated initials in red ink: a 'U' on the second staff, a 'C' on the sixth staff, and a 'D' on the seventh staff. The parchment is heavily stained and shows signs of significant wear, including several large holes and areas of discoloration. The text is partially obscured by these stains and holes.
