ad altare
laude
tūta Melius. tis ā. Gloria

The image shows a page from a medieval manuscript. It features four staves of musical notation, each with a red four-line staff and black square notes. The text is written in a Gothic script. The first line begins with a large decorated initial 'Q' in red and black. The second line starts with 'cū'. The third line starts with 'hic'. The fourth line starts with 'nus'. Below the fourth line, there is a section of text in red ink: 'ad altare laude tūta'. This is followed by a large decorated initial 'G' in red and black, which begins the word 'Gloria'. The text 'Melius. tis ā.' is written in black ink between the red text and the 'G'.
