The page contains ten blank musical staves, organized into two groups of five staves each. Each staff consists of five horizontal lines. The page is otherwise blank, with decorative elements in the corners.

Handwritten musical notation on ten staves. The notation is extremely faint and illegible, appearing as light grey lines on the staves.
