Dulcis Jesu

The image shows a page of handwritten musical notation for a violin part. It consists of eight staves of music. The notation includes various note values (quarter, eighth, sixteenth notes), rests, and dynamic markings such as mf and f. The music is written in a style characteristic of the 18th or 19th century. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a 4/4 time signature. The piece is titled "Sriare" and "Violino Primo", and is identified as "Mus. No. 23". The tempo or mood is indicated as "Dulcis Jesu".

Handwritten musical score on five staves. The first staff has a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a 9/8 time signature. The notation is dense with many beamed notes and rests. The fifth staff ends with a double bar line and a fermata-like flourish.

Dulcis Jesu

The musical score consists of ten staves of handwritten notation. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a 4/4 time signature. The notation is dense, featuring many beamed notes and rests. The second staff has a 'C' time signature above it. The final staff concludes with the word 'Adagio' written in a cursive hand.

The page contains ten staves of handwritten musical notation. The notation is extremely faint and illegible, appearing as light grey or brownish marks on the aged paper. The staves are arranged vertically, with some having double lines at the beginning, possibly indicating a new section or a specific instrument part. The ink is very light, making it difficult to discern specific notes or clefs.
