Andante

This page contains a handwritten musical score for Viola. It begins with the tempo marking 'Largo' and a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The score is written on ten staves. The first staff is a blank five-line staff with the instrument name 'Viola' written across it. The second staff starts with the tempo 'Largo' and contains the first few measures of music. The notation includes various note values, rests, and dynamic markings. The tempo changes to 'Andante' in the eighth staff. The score concludes with a double bar line and a final cadence on the tenth staff. There are several empty staves at the bottom of the page.

A page of handwritten musical notation on eight staves. The notation is in a historical style, likely from the 18th or 19th century. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a common time signature (C). The music consists of various note values, including minims, crotchets, and quavers, with some passages featuring slurs and ornaments. The notation is written in dark ink on aged, slightly yellowed paper. The staves are numbered 1 through 8 from top to bottom. The bottom of the page shows the beginning of a new system of staves.

This image shows ten blank musical staves arranged vertically on a single sheet of aged, yellowish paper. Each staff consists of five horizontal lines. The paper shows signs of wear, including some staining and discoloration, particularly near the top edge. The staves are completely empty of any musical notation or text.
