Allegro.

A handwritten musical score on ten staves. The notation includes various note values, rests, and dynamic markings. The word "Allegro." is written at the top. The score is written in a cursive hand. The paper shows signs of age, including some staining and foxing. The notation is dense, with many beamed notes and rests. There are some markings that look like "p" for piano and "legato" for legato. The staves are numbered 1 through 10 from top to bottom.

Handwritten musical score on a page with ten staves. The notation includes various notes, rests, and dynamic markings such as mf and legato. The word Halleluja is written across several staves in a large, stylized font. The bottom of the page features two empty staves.

A page of handwritten musical notation on ten staves. The notation is extremely faint and illegible, appearing as light brown or redish dots and lines. The paper is aged and shows signs of foxing and staining. The first staff begins with a clef-like symbol. The overall appearance is that of a very old, possibly preliminary or sketchy manuscript page.
