Handwritten musical notation on a five-line staff with rhythmic values and accidentals.

Handwritten musical notation on a page with decorative borders. The page contains 12 systems of music, each consisting of a staff with notes and a line of numbers below it. The notation is dense and appears to be a form of early keyboard or lute tablature.

The systems are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with 4 systems per row and 3 systems per column. Each system includes a staff with notes and a line of numbers below it. The numbers are often small and placed directly under the notes they correspond to.

Key features of the notation include:

- Staff lines with various note heads and stems.
- Accents and other markings above the notes.
- Numbers ranging from 1 to 5, often repeated.
- Vertical bar lines separating the systems.
