Handwritten text on a long, narrow strip of aged paper, likely a fragment of a manuscript or a scroll. The text is written in a cursive script, possibly a historical form of a European language. The paper is heavily stained and discolored, particularly with brown and yellow spots, indicating significant age and wear. The text is arranged in a single column, following the length of the strip. The script is dense and somewhat difficult to decipher due to the fading and the cursive nature of the writing. The strip appears to be a single leaf or a section of a larger document, with some irregular edges and a central fold or crease.
