2 Pieces - Don Mus.Ms. 1039

[S.l.], 1750-1799 (18.2d)

urn:nbn:de:bsz:31-96841

This image shows a page of handwritten musical notation on ten staves. The notation is written in dark ink on aged, yellowish paper. The notes are small and densely packed, particularly in the upper staves. The paper shows signs of wear, including foxing and some staining, especially towards the bottom right corner. The right edge of the page is slightly irregular and shows some binding marks.

Obo.: N.

Mus. No 1039

Handwritten musical score for Oboe No. 2, measures 1-10. The score consists of two staves per system. The first system has a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. The music is written in a cursive hand with various note values, rests, and dynamic markings.

Andante.

Handwritten musical score for Oboe No. 2, measures 11-20. The score continues with two staves per system. The tempo marking "Andante" is written above the first staff. The notation includes complex rhythmic patterns and dynamic markings.

Allegro:

The first system of the handwritten musical score consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and contains a melodic line with frequent slurs and dynamic markings. The lower staff is in bass clef and provides a rhythmic accompaniment with chords and moving lines. The notation is dense and characteristic of 18th or 19th-century manuscript.

Allo:

Allo: 2.

The second system of the musical score also consists of two staves. It continues the piece with similar notation to the first system. The word "bis" is written above several notes in both staves, indicating a repeat or a specific performance instruction. The paper shows signs of age, including some staining and a small tear at the top right corner.

And

Andante

Handwritten musical score on six staves. The notation includes treble and bass clefs, various note values, and rests. The word "bis" is written above the first and second staves, and "et zucka" is written below the fifth staff.
