

Badische Landesbibliothek Karlsruhe

Digitale Sammlung der Badischen Landesbibliothek Karlsruhe

A Treatise of Specters

Bromhall, Thomas

[S.l.], 1658

The Table

urn:nbn:de:bsz:31-96270

THE TABLE.

A Table of the first Part of this Book, being the Apparitions of Devills, and Evill Spirits.

The severall heads are to be found by the figures in the Margin:

M	Arcus Brutus his Vision. 1 Marcus Antonius his Vision. 2 Dion of Syracuse his Vision. 3 Alexander King of Scots his Vision. 4 The Apparition of an old woman at Tortils in Parma. 5 Antonius Utricus Codrus, his Vision. 6 Jacobus Patricius of Venice his Vision. 7 Curtius Ruffus, his Vision. 8 Edwinus his Vision. 9 The Vision of Machabæus, and Banquo Stuart. 10 Hotharus King of Swedes, his discourse with Nymphs. 11 An Apparition to Julius Cæsar. 12 Pelopidas Generall of the Theban Army. 13 An evil spirit forc't away by the sign of the Crosse. 14 An Apparition to Matthæus the Great. 15 An Apparition of the spirit of Galeacius to two Merchants. 16 The Apparition of Ludovicus Alodifius. 17 Apparitions at a City called Come near France. 18	An Apparition before the destruction of Antiochus. 19 An Apparition to a Factor of Sicily before the bursting out of horrid flames from the top of Mount Ætna. 20 A vision to one of the retinue of Damascus going into Persia. 21 The Vision of King Edward the third. 22 An Apparition to Aurelianus the Emperour. 23 The appearing of the Devil to St. Martin. 24 St. Geruans detecting of evill spirits which appeared in the habits of Men and women. 25 Menippus invited by the Devill in shape of a maid, to a rich house. 26 The Apparition of the Ghost of a Fencer to Jamblicus. 27 Julianus drove away Devills by the sign of the Crosse. 28 A Mediolanensian Boor afflicted by a Ghost. 29 An Apparition to Comandrus before his being drowned in the Hellespont. 30 The appearing of a Succubus to Apelles a Monk of Ægypt. 31 Datus Bishop of Mediolana, delivers a house from the haunting of Evill spirits. 32
----------	--	--

M m m

THE TABLE.

Spirits. 32 A wonderfull Spectrall related by Phlegon in his Book de mirabilibus et longævis. 33 A Monk deluded by the embraces of the Devill in form of a beautifull woman. 34 Vincentius his story of one who married a phantasm. 35 Of a young Lady of the Countrey Marra who kept company with an evill spirit. 36 A woman who had accompanied the Devill in form of a man, being at Sea causeth a great storm. 37 Of a Priest who had for forty years lain with an evil spirit. 38 Jacobus Ruffus in his fifth Book, his relation of a woman ravished by the Devill. 39 The Devill had commerce with a Merchants wife seven Miles from Wittenburg. 40 The Apparition of Benedictus the 8th, Pope. 41 The Apparition of Theophylact who called himself Benedict the ninth. 42 The appearing of an ugly Ghost to Saint Martin Bishop of Tours, where an unknown Martyr was worshipped. 43 Scopas and his companie's sudden death by the falling of a room upon them as they were feasting. 44 The raining of ashes. 45 An Earthquake round about Palestine and Syria. 46 The representation wherewith Theodoricus King of the Ostrogoths affrighted dies. 47 A strange report by the Castrobians concerning Aristæus the Poet. 48 The relation of one Leonard's going into a Cave at the City Basil. 49 Of a Swan which by a Silver chain fastned to her neck, hal'd a Bark along the River Rhene. 50 By Dianacs will, a great darknesse perplexed the Persians. 51	The Athenians assisted against the Persians by one in the habit of a rustick fellow. 52 Lightning fell down from Heaven upon the Persians at Minervaes Temple. 53 Æacides assists the Greeks fighting against Xerxes at Salamin. 54 A naked child placed before an army in battle aray. 55 Two unknown young men assisted the Locrensiens against the people of Sibaris, leading their army, upon milk-white Horses, and subduing their Enemies. 56 Mercury, when a youth, leading some striplings, chased the Eubæans. 57 Gastor and Pollux appeared champions for the Roman party. 58 Mars was propitious to the Romans. 59 Bacchus's feasts solemnized at Empusa, or Onacale, an evill Ghost sent by Hecate to them that are in distresse. 60 In Lybia; shapes of several living creatures. 61 The Orthomei their report of a Goblin. 62 Parnassus a Hill in Bœotia. 63 Gellus his maid who dying young, her Ghost walks at Lesbos. 64 Temistæus his Ghost. 65 The Isle of Æga troubled with Phantasms. 66 Spirits appeared at the death of Caligula. 67 Nero after murthering his Mother, troubled with her Ghost. 68 Otho the Emperour troubled with Galba his Ghost. 69 A Diabolical spirit appearing in the likeness of a wild Boar. 70 Hobgoblins driven away from haunting of a place, by the Sacrament and prayers. 71 The Devill appearing in the shape of an Angell to a Monk. 72 A demoniall spirit driven away, by devout Prayers and holy-water. 73
--	--

Prodigious

THE TABLE.

Prodigious and wonderfull sights of divers kinds. 74 At New-Castle in the coasts of Finlandia, one in the night appears playing upon an Harp before the death of any Soldier. 75 In Ilandia, an Island under the Artick Pole, a promontory like the Hill Ætna. 76 Night-Ghosts representing an Army in a hostile manner. 77 In Cracoviensis a spacious lake disturbed by Evil spirits. 78 A Priest troubled with the Incubus or Mare. 79 Alexander his dead friend came to bed to him. 80 Gordian and his comrades saw fearfull sights as they went to the City Arezzo. 81 A Devill seized upon one who had been a despiser of God, and disobedient to his Parents, but was driven from him by calling upon God. 82 The Devils appearing to Thomas Monachus in the shape of a Man. 83 The Devill appeared to a wicked young fellow, who upbraided, defamed, and taunted his father. 84 A spectrall in the form of a beautiful woman. 85 The harmlesse spirits, called Lares; the cruel, Larvæ. 86 Mettal-mines frequented with both kinds of spirits. 87 A tall woman of a most dreadfull countenance seen in the Ayre before a Massacre at Antioch. 88 A Prisoner agreed with the Devill to be delivered out of Prison and view Hell. 89 One in form of a child breaking out of the ground, spoke as wisely as a Senatour to a Ploughman. 90 The Devill in the shape of a tall woman appeared to Drusus made Consull, and warring by the name of Augustus Cæsar. 91 An Hobgoblin leaping and skipping	before Dunstan an English Abbot. 92 The overthrow of the Sicilians made known to shepheards by the speaking of Spirits to one another in the night. 93 An Hermophrodite born at Ætolia. 94 Pompeius Galienus the stoutest man of Cæsar's army. 95 Castor and Pollux appear in the shape of two young gallants. 96 The Devill transformed into an Angel of light, appeared to Rathbodus commander of Frisia. 97 Valentinus the Arrian Bishop his dead Corps dragged out of the Temple by evil spirits. 98 A Monk adjures by vertue of the holy and undivided Trinity, spirits appearing like troops of armed men, to tell what they were. 99 A Ghost appeared to Cicero his Nurse. 100 The Prognosticks of the death of the Emperour Annius Tacitus. 101 Constantius the Emperour his strange visions. 102 Marcellus the Bishop by earnest prayer repelled the Magick of the Devill. 103 An innumerable company of spectralls amongst the Pilappii. 104 Anoble Gentleman of Bavaria grieved for the death of his wife, she appeared to him. 105 Bruno Bishop of Herbiopolis, his Vision before his sudden death. 106 The Devill in shape of a Monk walks in the Mountains of Bohemia. 107 A Fisherman taking a Sea-Monster of the shape of a beautifull woman, married her, and had a child by her. 108 A Satanical phantasm by the Devil in form of an Hare in the sight of Luther. 109 Martin Luther his tale at a Supper. 110
---	--

THE TABLE.

The bodies of dead men entred by Devils,	111	command,	128
An innocent Fool brought an Infant safe out of the company of a multitude of Devils.	112	The dead Husband of a Kins-woman to Phillip Melancthon, appeared to her,	129
A Bird melodiously singing adjured in the name of Christ, confesseth her self a spirit,	113	In the year 1555. a Spectrum appeared at Brunsviga, in the Village of Gehen,	130
Two noble men long before dead, appeared to Nicolaus Amsdorffius Bishop of Ciz, when he was a Priest at Maidenburg,	114	Stephen Hubener a rich Citizen of Trawtenaw in Bohemia, his body after death entred into by the Devill,	131
In the year 1545. an evill spirit straggled about the City Rotwill.	115	The Devill in likeness of a man, enticing many children, stole them away from Hammel,	132
The Devill comes in shape of a man desiring a Priest to take his confession,	116	The Devill appearing, pretending himself the spirit of a deceased man,	133
The Devill appearing to a good old man upon his death-bed, was driven away by a Text of Scripture,	117	The Devill appearing in form of a dead man, and his appearing to a maid, seeking commerce with her.	134
A Doctour of Divinity of Lower-Germany caught up by the Devill on horseback, then into the Ayre, whence he was cast down,	118	A maid possessed by the devill, Prophecyeth,	135
In the lower Germany, a Monster of the bignesse of a man formed like a Dog,	119	A man troubled with the worms, spoke Dutch, a language utterly unknown to him, whereof being cured by a Physician, he was not able to speak a word of that language,	136
The Devill in form of a servant waits upon a nobleman who lived by plundering,	120	Exorcisms for the dispossessing of the devill,	137
Luther's relation of certain Monks, their employing the Devill in the Kitchen of their Monastery,	121	The devill speaks in a Maid possess'd,	138
Crescentius the Popes Nuncio in the Council of Trent, his Vision.	122	In the wilderness of Tingut the voyces of devils are heard,	139
Spectralls after the death of a rich Epicure at Haberstade,	123	The devill speaks out of a Crow,	140
In the year 1559. in Mathia appeared spirits in form of men without heads, reaping corn,	124	The devil disputed with Hieronymus Cardanus,	141
A notable Vision near Spira in the year 1530, on the 18th, 19th, and 20th, of July,	125	The devill out of a Crow predicted things to come,	142
Magdalena Crucia Hispania, of the chief City of all Corduba, Boetica, married her self to the Devill, whereby she performed wonders,	127	A most certain argument to detect one possessed,	143
The Devill appeared to a Clown to help him perform his Lords unreasonable		In the time of Agyropolis Emperour of Rome a miserable dolesfull noise was heard at the bottome of the Fountain Curena.	144
		Calligraphus of Alexandria his Vision,	145
		Hircanus Captain of the Jews had news by Oracle from the high Priest of his Sons victory,	146
		A strange prodigy,	147
		Cornelius

THE TABLE.

Cornelius of Patavia, an Augur, 148 One and the self-same day, a day of Tro- phies and fame too, in places distant 2500. miles, 149 Sofipatra of Alexandria wrapt suddenly by a fury, 150 An Egyptian Pilot as he was sailing to Rome, heard an unknown voice, which called him by his name. 151 Monabazus King of the Adiabeniens, heard a voice as he lay in his Bed, 152 A prediction to Nicephorus Pharus the Emperour, 153 A Prodigious voice called aloud to Opici- nius Cacia Novaria, 154 A confused murmure mixed with laugh- ing, heard in the Theatre before Neroes death, 155 A voice crying Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, in Eu- pilus Lake, 156 Hircanus Captain of the Jews, his visi- on, 157 A voice to a vulgar man foretelling the approach of the French against the Tri- bunitian souldiers, 158 A voice rebuking Lycurgus, 159 A voice calling to Cassius, and others, conspiring against Caiigula, 160 Pertharis, King Arithpertus his Son, warned by an unknown voice. 161 Chostilius Maucius Consul, going into Spain, heard a voice sounding in his ear, stay Maucius. 162 The Devil was heard to cry aloud through the Temple, I have made this day quar- relsome, 163 Constans the Emperour, his death divul- ged by a voice in the Ayre far from the place where he died, 164 Alchymists mocked by the Devil, 165 The Devil seizeth upon a souldier who de- frauded the poor, 166 A young man delivered from the Devill who haunted him in form of a Woman; by fasting and prayer. 167 A melancholly maid fancying her self haunted with a Ghost, cured by Physick, 168	A Monk of the Abbey Kietchtenstine, an upright person, tortured with a Ghost, 169 One Brugus a woman, troubled with an evill Genius. 170 Judith driven to Convulsion fits by the Devill, 171 Helena in a village called Loes near Audenhovia haunted with a Devill, 172 The Nuns of Venterus in the County of Horn cruelly handled by an evil spi- rit, 173 The Virgins of the Monastery of Naza- reth haunted with Devills, 174 A virgin of the Nunnery of Saint Brid- get being mad, was mounted up into the Ayre by the Devill and strangled, 175 The Devill playing melodiously upon an Harp at the Nunnery of Neognagus, 176 The Devill in shape of a Dog at a Col- ledge in the Colonienstian Province, 177 The Nuns of the Kentorpien Monastery infested by the Devill, 178 John Fernelius his relation in his se- cond book of Occult causes, 179 The Town of Schiltach in Germany set on fire by a Witch, 180 A maid dispossesed of the Devill by the prayers of the Church, 181 A Fishermans daughter at Urcad in Franckford, possesed with the Devill, 182 A Smiths daughter near Joakims val- ley possesed with the Devill, 183 The dead corps of a rich man entred into by the Devill at Trawtenaw in Bohe- mia, 184 A Priests daughter tormented by the De- vill, 185 Bodinus his relation of Boyes and Girls, possesed, 186 John Vierus his relation in his fifth Book, of a maid possesed with the De- vill, 187
---	---

THE TABLE.

The Lady Rosse from the eighth year of her age bound with an Evil spirit,	188	Govarus King of Norvegia skillfull in the Art of divination,	213
The Brachman Philosopher of India,	189	A relation how Magicians teach Husbands to make their wives hate Adultery,	214
Families in Africa who bewitch by immoderate praise,	190	Philometor his using Magicall verses,	215
Wizards at Rhodus,	191	Crata Regneri the wife of a Danish Champion, a witch,	216
Ephesian characters,	192	Clerus Sethus enticed a virgin by a Persian Apple,	217
Magicall Women banished to wildernesses,	193	Cajanus by Magick could transform himself into the shape of any beast,	218
The Northern Botnici Zappi and Finnonnes Magicians,	194	Italian women lethargized mens minds by some kinds of meat,	219
Zoroastes King of the Bactrians thought to have found out the Art of Magick,	195	In Prussia, Livonia, and Lituania a great number of Witches,	220
Hecate sprung from Perles, her cruelty and immanity,	196	A Witch foretold the issue of the battle 'twixt Uratisslaus Prince of Luca, and Grecomisslaus Prince of Bohemia,	221
Pafetis Farthing, a Proverb,	197	Apollonius Thioneus his strange cures,	222
Pythagoras his magicall whispering,	198	Magicall Inchantments,	223
Simon Samaritanus his wonderfull arts,	199	Witches by the black art afflicted Duffus King of the Scots,	224
In Galeotide a man who did wonders,	200	Utolfus chief Ruler of the Helsingians,	225
Apollonius Tyanæus the Philosopher,	201	The Lappones and Finni their manner of revenge,	226
Sederius a Jewish Physitian,	202	Johannes Galleacius by Magick disabled to perform conjugal rights,	227
A Princesse a notable Witch.	203	Pythagoras seen at Criton and Metapontus the same hour,	228
A woman strangled and devoured a boy,	204	Apollonius vanished out of the custody he was under,	229
John Fernelius his strange relation,	205	Jamblicus, praying, lift up from the ground,	230
Facius Cardanus had an aeriall devill to his familiar,	206	Oddo Danicus a Pyrat, roved up and down the Sea without a Ship,	231
James Jodoci had a ring wherein he thought the devil was tyed by exorcisms,	207	Orhnius by Magick brought Hadingus King of Denmark, through a great part of the Sea, on horseback,	232
Margaret the daughter of John Venerus of Esslingen had her belly swelled to an immense greatnesse by her Mothers means being a witch,	208	Thespetion his incantations,	233
The devill appearing in the shape of a man, calling himself Moses, deluded many Jews,	209	The Image of Jupiter made by Magick to utter Oracles,	234
Archus an Indian wiseman,	210	Appion, with the hearb Cynocephalea prevails against all manner of witchcrafts,
Apollonius his prediction,	211
Jamblicus returning from sacrifices.	212

THE TABLE.

crafts,	236	The Pythagorian sport by a Looking-
The ghost of Achilles presents it self to		glasse,	265
Apolonius Tyanæus,	237	A Chevalier swallowes a sharp dart,	266
Jamblicus raiseth out of Bathes two in		Philumena the Harlot of Apelles the
the form of beautifull young men,	238	Heretick,	267
A phantasm wrought by the Devil,	239	Magitians come out of Egypt to Byzan-
A notable Prodigie,	240	tium, to shew their art,	258
The Bulgari use Magical devices,	241	wonderful tricks shewed by some of them
The Hunni use inchantments,	242	for money, by others for ostentation,	269
Aquinus Prince of Norway useth in-		Michael Sicidires, Magnus Manuel
chantments,	243	Comnenus being Emperour, would
The Wood-Finni or Tores,	244	allow no such Sigbis.	270
The Magick-Vesture called Indusium,	245	Gregory the seventh his Miracles,	271
An inchanted Ensign,	246	In the cave of an Ile belonging to the
Inchanted verses,	247	Ostrogothians strange Inchantments,	272
Empedocles the Magitian his verses		Antonius Heliogabalus his Magicall
concerning himself,	248	inchantments,	273
The Magick Idolatry of the Persici,	249	The Emperour Arrian when he under-
Theti Magitians allay tempest by sacri-		stood by Magick, that one whose name
fices,	250	begun with Theta, should succeed him
Inspired Persians walk upon burning		in the Empire, commanded all to be
coals,	251	slain whose names begun with that
A Virgin at Rome accused of incest,		letter,	274
clears her innocence by prayers,	252	Andronicus Comnenus Tyrannus con-
Armiplus an Egyptian Magitian,	253	sulteth a Magitian,	275
A Northern people called Finni, sell		Euphrosina wife of Alexius Angelus
winds to Merchants,	254	the Emperour, gave up her mind to di-
wicked blasphemous Priests,	255	vinations,	276
Near Elton Pagum, a spirit that vexed		Theotecnus of Athens, an Inchanter,
travellers,	256	and cruel persecutoe of Christians,	277
Pelopsin an Olympick Charrioter his in-		Jason's Enterprize with fifty four more
chantment,	257	young gallants.	278
Pythagoras made tame a savage Bear,	258	Johannes Teutonicus by Magicall art
Apollonius Tyanæus his expelling of		causeth Spectrum to appear.	279
Serpents,	259	An Arabian after drinking Cocks blood,
The Abrathimins their Magitians cal-		labeled Brachmans,	280
led Brachmans,	260	A young gallant of the Town of Gaza
Fishers of Rotterdam deluded by witch-		consulteth Magitians for the obtain-
craft,	261	ing of a Ladies love with whom he was
Paletus by famous for his skill in Ma-		enamoured,	281
gick,	262	Demetrius Spartanus deludes the peo-
Numa the Roman King,	263	ple of Rome by his Enzagick for which
William Earl of Holland made King,	264	he is worthily punish'd,	282

A

THE TABLE.

A Maid of sixteen years of age possessed with a Devil,	283	Athena,	305
Cardanus his Relation out of his fifteenth book, of one possessed with a Devill,	284	Martin Luther his tale of his Mothers being vexed with an Inchantress,	306
Vierus his strange relation of a Maid bewitched,	285	without the permission of God the Devil can hurt no man,	307
His wonderfull relation of an Husband-man bewitched,	286	Pope Alexander a Magitian,	308
Fulgofus his miraculous report of a religious man,	287	Of a Virgin, who instead of tears wept drops of blood,	309
Boccatus a noble Lombard,	288	A Magitian being hanged vanished away, and a bundle of straw remained in his stead,	310
Johannes Baptift. Port. Neapolitan, his relation of a Witch,	289	How to arm our selves against the power of the devil,	311
Jarcka his gift to Apollonius Tyaneus,	290	Of the commixtion and commerce of the devil with witches,	312
Witches by giving men cheefe, turn'd them into beasts,	291	A witch useth means to seduce a chaste Virgin to lie with the devil,	313
Witches transforming men into beasts, sell them to Merchants,	292	A young Virgin signing her self with the sign of the Cross, driveth away devils,	314
Michael Verdunus and Peter Burgotus contract with the Devil,	293	A woman prostitutes her self to the devil,	315
An horrible Earthquake in Norway, in the year 1348.	294	In the Brixienſian Dioceſs, a young wife bewitched to death,	316
A Bull charmed with Magical incantations,	295	A young Noble-man deprived by Witchcraft of natural strength to beget children,	317
A Virgin of Bononia converſant with men two years after her death,	296	Devils appear in form of young gallants,	318
A studious young man of Sfordia enamoured of a Virgin,	297	A Prieſt who formerly thought there was no witches bewitched,	319
Andreas an Italian, a notable Satanicall jugler,	298	Barrenneſs in a family by witchcraft,	320
Adunghill Cock divines,	299	A Mid-wife a witch,	321
John Fauſtus carried about with him an evil ſpirit in ſhape of a dog,	300	A poor Labourer ſet upon by Gentlewomen witches in the ſhape of Cats, which he grievouſly hurt,	322
The Devil comes to Frederick of Austria, being priſoner in a Caſtle near Naburg, offering to ſet him free, but he drives the devil away by the ſign of the Croſs,	301	A woman to perpetrate her malice, contracteth with the Devil,	323
John an Almain Prieſt at Haberſtadium, a Magitian,	302	A woman afflicted with a Leproſie by witchcraft,	324
A Magitian who cut off his ſervants head, uniting it to his body again,	303	A witch infects an hangman with Leproſie,	325
Enchantreſſes who deſired and endeavoured to deſtroy the fruits of the earth,	304	Inchantments hid under the threshold of a door,	326
A Magitian of a Neighbour Town of		A woman by conſtant and fervent prayers to Almighty God, delivered from witchcraft,	327
		Witches

THE TABLE.

Witches devote their Children to the Devil, 328 Witches make it rain, hail, or cause a tempest at their pleasure, by the power of the devil, 329 A Witch causeth loathsome stinks, to the terrour of her apprehenders, 330 A Witch being to be hang'd, spits upon the face of the hang-man, whereupon he fell down dead, 331 The History of Job evidenceth the power of the devil, 332 They who get unjustly, labour for the devil, 333 A Witch cures a woman afflicted with sickness, by praying to the devil, 334 Witchcraft by Spells, and using of a siere, 335 Two verses out of the Psalms being pronounced, no Butter will be produced by art, 336 Ring-Magick, by putting a ring upon a bowl of water, 337 Rod-magick. 338 Amasis King of Egypt so bound by Magick, that he could not perform Nuptial rights to his wife Laodice, 339 Witchcraft performed by tying of a knot many wayes, 340 A woman accuseth a witch for binding her Husband, that he could not perform marriage rites, 341 It passeth the power of the Devil to bind men from eating or drinking, by intercepting the power of their stomach, 342 Insulanus Lord of the Novallians, desirous to know the number of his dayes, 343 John Charterius an Historiographer, and Guilhelm a Doctor of Sorbon, condemned for Sorcery. 344 A womans Witchcraft detected by her husband. 345 A great Lady of Lugdunum, her witchcraft discovered by her stallion, 346 A Nobleman of Maldunum, who for curiosities sake went amongst Witches, 347	A woman accused of Witchcraft by her Husband, 348 A great company of Witches vanished away by a young maids calling upon God, who was seduced to their society, 346 The devill obligeth witches by an oath to renounce God, 350 The devill seated upon a Throne, 351 The devill lyeth as men use to do with women, with a witch. 352 Confessions of Witches. 353 Witches by their Husbands taken in the manner with the devill, 354 A Noblewoman of Spain seduced by a witch, had to do with the devil at eighteen years of age, 355 A whole family bewitched to madnesse, 356 A woman by Magick cures Feavers, 357 A witch counterfeits holinesse, 358 A witch who had bewitched a man, could not cure him again though she earnestly endeavoured it, 359 A witch cureth the Horse of a Nobleman, and transfers the Horses disease to a servant, 360 A Magitian promised to transfer the disease of the father to his sucking Infant, 361 A witch commanded by a Judge to touch a woman whom she had bewitched, falls down dead, 362 A Magitian bidding a man sick of a Feaver, give it his enemy, he answering he had not any, but transferring it to the witch, he died, and the sick man recovered, 363 A great number of Witches burned for witch-craft, 364 A disease which comes to a man by a naturall cause, and not by witchcraft, cannot be cured by Magick. 365 A house troubled with an evill spirit, 366 A spirit in shape of a horse, kills twelve men, 367
---	--

THE TABLE.

The treasure Arcolius near Lutetia discovered by Magick,	368	The Devill in form of a great Hee-goat adored by Witches,	390
A Lawyer and his companions seeking by Conjurations for treasure, are affrighted by spirits from their enterprise,	369	The admirable judgment of seven Magicians,	391
Satan deludes many by binding fast their eyes,	370	Baro of Razii who was condemned for using Magick, his confession.	392
A witch who enfeebled an Horse by witchcraft,	371	A most diabolical bloody Mid-wife,	393
A way to free Cattle from sorcery by using a sieve,	372	Gazereis a cursed witch of Tholossa,	394
witchcraft,	373	A Magician who upon a sudden oftentimes flew,	395
A Mason tormented by witchcraft,	374	Articles against Ægidius Garnerius, whereof he was accused and convicted,	396
white witches or those who cure and deliver from harm,	375	Peter Burgortus, and Michael Verdunus, their confessing their sacrificing to the Devill,	397
A witch cures a sick woman whom she had bewitched,	376	A witch taking the form of a wolf, wounded with an arrow,	398
A Sorcerer of Flanders.	377	witches in the forms of wolves and Cats,	399
A Bishop bewitched,	378	The Lappi sell calms and storms,	400
Triscalanus a witch whom the King of France pardoneth, confesseth the way by which sorceries are conveyed,	379	A Jew who at any time when he pleased could transform himself.	401
Satan enters a man mortally wounded,	380	Nothing more clear by History, then that many have been transformed into beasts,	402
A Butcher discovers many witches in a wood in the night.	381	An English Souldier at Cyprus turned into an Asse by a witch,	403
The confession of three witches who were condemned to dye for witchcrafts which they had committed,	382	A dialogue betwixt a stage-player and an Asse in Ægypt,	404
The Sorcerers of Potezana their confession,	383	Two witches turn men into beasts, transform a Player into an Asse,	405
The confession of a witch at Biturgum,	384	Atheisticall men turned into Asses,	406
The confession of a witch who could not rest unlesse she did some evil every day,	385	witches raise lightnings, storms, and tempests,	407
The Devils declare what is done in divers Nations at a convention,	386	How a witch caused a storm,	408
There is no meeting of Witches and Devils without dancing,	387	How some wicked Priests caused showers,	409
A witch anointing her self, lyes void of sense for three hours after, which returning to her body, relates things from divers Countreys.	388	How witches kill Cattle,	410
A witch departs from her body for a whole night to the convention of Devils and witches, and her spirit returns to her body in the morning,	389	Children killed in the wombs of their Mothers by witches,	411
		A cursed witch Christneth two Toads.	412
		witches with a powder kill Hearbs,	413
		A witch who by his voice could kill men.	414
		The

THE TABLE.

The Devil teacheth a Conjurer to shoot darts at a crucifix, 415 A Hermophrodite a witch attached, discovers the conjuration, conventicles, and diabolical acts of Witches, 416 A Witch at Laodunum who debilitated, and screwed men awry, and destroyed beasts and fruit, 417	A Conjurer in the sight of the people flying up towards Heaven, snatch'd his wife with him, laying hold on him, and a Maid also who stood by them, to the great wonder of the amazed people, who beheld them wavering in the Ay, 418
---	--

The Table to the Second Book, being of Oracles, Prophecies, &c.

The severall heads are to be found by the figures in the Margin.

The counsel which Telephus receives from the Oracle at Delphos for cure of his wound, 1 Cræsus King of the Lydians consults the Oracle at Delphos, for the cure of his son being dumb. 2 The Minyæ, the Plague raging upon man and beast, consult the Oracle. 3 Atheniensis son of Craterus King of the Persians, consulting the Oracle, was told, That he should kill his own father, 4 Oedipus kills his father according to the prediction of the Oracle. 5 The strange death of Eumelus King of the Bosphorean Cymarians, 6 Cyrus King of the Persians, consults Orpheus his head at Lesbos, 7 Polycrates the Samian Tyrant consults the Oracle at Delphos, 8 Great slaughter to happen revealed to Julius Cæsar, by evident and wonderful Prodigies. 9 Titus the Emperour his death foretold by the Oracle. 10 Mauricianus the son of Justinianus the Emperour being slain by the Goths, the Oracle was fulfilled, 11	Manuel Comnenus after he had reigned 38 years excepting 3 moneths, hoping to prolong his life, put himself into Monastical habit. 12 Polycrates the Theban consults the Oracle at Delphos for the finding of treasure, 13 Pfameticus encouraged by the Oracle, gains the King of Egypt, 14 Manuel Comnenus Emperour, nameth his son Alexius, in observance of the Oracles doubtful speech. 15 Boetia being spoyled, those of that Countrey who escaped, run to the Oracle, 16 The Teucricretensians seek themselves new habitations, by the advice of the Oracle, 17 The Phrygians carried by Æneas their Captain into the Lawrel field, were not willing to go any further, but hearkned to the Oracle, 18 The prediction of the Oracle at Delphos to the Lacedemonians, 19 Codrux King of the Athenians, in observance of the Oracle, voluntarily sacrificed himself for the safety of his people. 20 The
--	--

THE TABLE.

The Oracle predicteth the overthrow of the Athenians by the Persians,	21	A Shepherd, laid down by Orpheus his Tomb, falling asleep, chants forth Orpheus his verses in a sweet tone,	43
Valerius Torquatus swallowed up by the ground, in which place an Altar is built according to the advice of the Oracle,	22	The Scythian Islanders send the tenth of their treasures they get out of the silver and gold Mines, yearly to Apollo at Delphos,	44
In the Cimbrick warr the goddess, mother of great Idæa, declared victory to the Romans,	23	An equivocal Oracle given to the Messanians,	45
The Oracle at Delphos declares victory to the Romans against the Vientians,	24	The answer of the Oracle at Delphos to the Phocenses,	46
The Dorienſes obeying the command of the Oracle, got Elea,	25	The Lacedemonians consult Pythia,	47
The Oracle's advice to the Lacedemonians, how to overcome the Tegeans,	26	Cleomenes King of the Spartans, consults the Oracle at Delphos,	48
An Oracle given out in the time of Tiberius Emperour of Rome,	27	Philomelus having taken the Delphick Oracle compels Pythia to tell him somewhat of future events,	49
The Devil speaketh in the Idol of Zemus,	28	The Oracle's answer to Cræſus at Delphos,	50
An Oracle given to the Ancestors of Sardanapalus,	29	Arceſilaus being driven from his Kingdom, sent to Delphos, to consult the Oracle,	51
An Oracle given to the Poet Hesiod.	30	Nero the Emperour, warned by Mathematicians, that the ruine of the Empire was portended by the Stars.	52
Epaminondas his charge from the Oracle at Delphos.	31	Xerxes the son of Darius finds an Urn,	53
The Oracle given to Cambyses the Persian King.	32	Silvester the Pope reported to have obtained the Popedome by evils works,	54
Pythia predicteth the death of Philip King of Macedon,	33	whas encouragement the Æginetians received by the Oracle at Delphos to warr,	55
The doubtful Oracle given him at Delphos,	34	The wisdom of the Persian Magies,	56
Æſcylus the Athenian tragick Poet, his death foretold by the Oracle.	35	An huge beard groweth upon the chin of the Priest of Minerva at Pedesentia, upon a sudden, immediately before a diverse fortune seizeth upon the people,	57
Daphidas the Sophister Ironically consults the Oracle at Delphos.	36	Beleſes a Chaldean encourageth Arabes General of the Medes, to invade the Babylonians,	58
Dionysius senior, Tyrant of Syracuse, acted a Tragedy to the Athenians in their Bachanalian feasts.	37	Thales the Mileſian discovers the plenty one year, and scarcity another, by the rising of the seven Stars,	59
Fatal necessity unavoidable,	38	Bœotius the son of a common cryer, his fortune told by a Chaldean,	60
Hannibal the famous Carthaginian Captain, his death predicted by the Oracle.	39
Appius Claudius consults the Oracle,	40
The Antianæan Oracles their advice to C. Caligula,	41
Parthonius foretold by the Oracle to succeed in the Empire,	42

The

THE TABLE.

The birth-day of the Emperour Augustus, observed,	61	An Astrologer foretells Rodolphus the Haspurgenian Earl his being Emperour,	78
Scribonius the Mathematician,	62	The Mathematicians predicted Sfortia his high Empire,	79
Tiberius Caesar makes use of Thrasillus, a cunning Chaldean,	63	Braccius the Montenensian Duke, seeing the body of his Enemy Sfortia drowned, praised him with exquisite Encomiums,	80
Claudius the Emperour predicteth the time of his own death,	64	Henry a Bohemian an Astronomer, his predictions,	81
An Astronomer foretold Nero his being Emperour, and his killing his Mother at the time of his birth,	65	Basil a Southsayer foretells the death of Alexander Medices Duke of Florence,	82
Alcletario a Mathematician, foretelleth his own death.	66	John Liechtenberg his prediction,	83
Domitian the Emperour, superstitiously given to Mathematical predictions,	67	The tenth day of September fatal to Peter Alois,	84
Hadrian the Emperour, an excellent Astronomer,	68	Brazen tables wherein was engraven a prediction, That the Grecians were to overcome the Persians,	85
Septimius Severus Pertinax a skilfull Mathematician,	69	A wonderful thing in the second Carthaginian war,	86
A Midwife of Constantinople at the birth of Ablabius, foretells his being Prætor,	70	Verses found in a table of stone, when the walls of Chalcedon were made equal with the ground,	87
Two Jews, Astrologers, promise Zira Prince of the Arabians Empire, and long life, if he would demolish the Christian Temples and Images of Saints,	71	A table of stone found in the bank of the River Scirtus, with Hieroglyphical Egyptian letters written on it,	88
The advice of John, an Astronomer and Magitian to Lucapenus the Roman Emperour,	72	Chaldeans foretell Alexander's danger if he went to Babylon,	89
Nicolas son to Guido Earl of Patavia, predicted perdition to his Coantrey, by Jambonus Andreas, an Astrologian,	73	what Aretas King of the Persians gathered by Southsayings,	90
Guido Bonatus foretold the Earl of Mountferrat, that he should receive a wound in his Hip, by a salley which he should make the day before the Calends of May,	74	Apollonius an Egyptian foretold the death of Caius Caligula the Emperour,	91
Antiochus Tibertus foretells Guidon, that he should be killed by his intimate friend, upon suspicion of Infidelity,	75	Apollonius foretold Cilix his slaughter,	92
Petrus Leonius, a dextrous Astronomer, discovered, by his Art, that sudden death was portended to him by water,	76	Larginus Proclus foretells the death of Domitian the Emperour,	93
Predictions by Bartholomeus Coclecles, an excellent Physiognomist,	77	The death of Constance discovered by a Souldier, observing the intrals of beasts and birds.	94
		Alexander Severus Emperour, as firing to begin his speech to his Souldiers with a lucky word, Fortune brought him one clean contrary.	95
		A woman meeting the two Maximines in the Market-place, falls dead,	96

THE TABLE.

Dioclesian his being Emperour is fore- told by a woman,	97	should conquer the name of the Atheni- ans.	118
Marian a most wise Earl his predictions,	98	Philumena a Soothsaying maid,	119
A Soothsayers prediction to Agilulph Duke of the City Taurina,	99	Saint Augustine reports of Albigertus, that he knew all secrets,	120
Antonine his prediction to his Schollers,	100	Basilacius a man of an unaccustomed life a fortune-teller.	121
Remex a Rhodian, his prediction,	101	Merlin begotten by a spirit called Incu- bus, and a Brittain Noblewoman, fore- told many things to come,	122
An old Proverb in Carthage,	102	An unclean spirit having possessed Jaco- ba, speaks in her,	123
Spartan guests ravish the daughters of Scedalus.	103	A notable Impostor of Peter Brabantius who as oft as he pleased spoke from the bottome of his belly without moving his lips.	124
The Speech of a Magitian of Egypt to An- thonic,	104	Amphiarus a soothsayer, by the gaping of the earth swallowed up, with his Cha- riot and Horses,	125
The Roman Captains forbid to go with weapons beyond Ctesiphon, by reason of an ancient Prophecie,	105	Actius Navius a shepheard boy, a sooth- sayer,	126
Sybill her Prophecie of the destruction of Antichrist,	106	Posthumus the Sooth-sayer,	127
The god Ammon answereth the Temen- tes,	107	Spurina foretells to Julius Caesar his danger of being killed.	128
Sybill foretells the warlike glory of the Macedons,	108	A German Prophecieth to Agrippa then prisoner, his deliverances and fu- ture prosperity,	129
A Child having teeth speaketh the same day in which he is born.	109	The Adelitrans and Almogonens di- vine from the flying of Birds, and meet- ing of wild beasts,	130
A Child within twenty four hours of its birth spoke and made signs with its hands,	110	Alexander the Emperour given to riot and Magick,	131
A Syrian seeing a Ship running with full sayles, foretold it should be sunk,	111	Simeon Duke of the Bulgarians.	132
Phericides foretold an earthquake with- in three dayes,	112	An Idoll built by Mahomet, whereunto a legion of Devils are engaged by Ma- gick, to which Christians cannot come without danger,	133
The answer which the Oracle at Delphos gave to Glaucus enquiring counsell concerning unjustly deteyned money,	113	The manner how the Biarmians, Bothy- nians, Finlanders, divine,	134
Alphonfus King of Arragon besieging Neopolis, had the taking thereof fore- told him by a man of a reverend aspect,	114	How Jannes the master of Theophilus the Emperour, foretold things to come,	135
Women who guessed at things to come, by whirl-pools and noyse of waters,	115	Apollonius the Emperour slain at Rome by Stephen according as Apollonius spoke in an extasy at the instant of his death at Ephesus.	136
Abaris of Scuthias a divine of the Hy- berborcans,	116	Stephen the Hagio-Christophorite, knew from the Devill by Sethus a Ma- gitian, that destruction hanged over the
Ædelsius the son of Chrysanthus had a body so nimble that it exceeded humane belief.	117
Agias divined unto Lysander that he

THE TABLE.

the head of Andronicus Comnenus, 137 William King of the Romans dying unfortunately and suddenly, was buried in a Tomb in Frisia, which had stood long beautified, without any man buried, because it was Prophesied that a King of the Romans should be laid therein, 138 Two brothers not knowing one another, kill each other as a soothsayer foretold them, 139 Sigthune King of Swethland as he sacrificed, understood that by fatall necessity, he was to die by Gold, 140 Two Snakes found in the bed of Sempromius Gracchus, 141 The Soothsayers answer to Marcellinus, 142 Agigulph a Soothsayer, counsells Antharis King of the Longobards, to take Tolinda the Virgin to wife, 143 Batabaces Priest of the great mother Idea, fore-shew's a great victory to the people of Rome, 144 A Madmuu from Bellona, shews to L. Sylla, that he should obtain the palm of conquest, 145 The builders of Ephesus consult the Oracle for direction where to erect it, 146 The Locrians wooden Dog, 147 Melanthus a banished man from his country, received an Oracle, 148 The Oracle Apollo Pythius directs Pausanias where to build Byzantium, 149 A Sow that had Pigs, made a divination to the Trojans of building a City, 150 Tarquinius Superbus his founding the Temple of Jupiter, Iuno, and Minerva, 151 Alexander a Priest of Minerva, Prophesies to Alexander that he shall be a Conquerour, 152 The interpretation of a divination by Calchas a Prophet, 153 Aristander the diviner, his interpretation of a Crow's flying when Alexander the Great assaulted Gaza. 154	A Magpy sits on the head of Coelius Pontius declaring the Law, 155 At Alexander the great his expedition into Asia, a Cyprus Tree sweateth, 156 The Siracusians besieged, perform solemn rights to Hercules. 157 Prodigies appear when Lucius Sylla went with an army to the Sociall war, 158 The Hilt of P. Scipio Africanus his Sword springs with blood, 159 A Ram with one Horn sprung out of the middle of his forehead, brought to Pericles. 160 The Chaldean Prophets foretel the translation of the Persian Empire to the Macedonians. 161 The Buckler of Maximinus the father set on fire by the Sun, and his spear struck by a Thunderbolt, 162 A Martin flying amongst a Navy of Ships, lighted upon the very top of the Stern of the Ship wherein Dion was, 163 A Eagle snatcheth a spear from one of the guard of Dion wherewith sublimely mounting, at length she let it fall into the deep, 164 The suburbs of Sardis filled with Snakes, which the Horse of Croesus King of the Lydians going to Graesse, devours, 165 The Sacrifices offered by Dionysius the younger to the gods, portend great prodigies, 166 Tarquinius Superbus his dream, 167 Strange sights appear to Hippocrates the most valiant Duke of Athens, 168 Statues sweat, with divers other formidable prodigies, 169 The prodigiom return of a child almost born, to his Mothers belly again, 170 Archelaus Tetrarch of Judæa and Idumea, his dream, 171 The Ensign of Barnabas, Lieutenant-Governour, shattered with a Thunderbolt. 172
--	--

THE TABLE.

Zeno the Emperour flees to a little Castle upon an Hill called Constantinople, 173 Frederick the second told by one who had a familiar spirit, That he should die at the Florentine field, 174 Adelheida, a Lady of the noble blood of the Tuscans, of so high a wit, by observing the Heavens and Stars, that she foresaw things to come, 175 A fortune-teller's prediction to Machabæus King of the Scots, 176 Antonius of Leva animates Charls the fifth, Emperour, to war upon France, 177 A Soothsayer's prediction to Amilcarus Duke of the Carthaginians, 178 The Velitri consult an Oracle, 179	Hadrianus Corneranus Cardinal, conceives hope of obtaining the Papacy by the Oracle of a Fortune-telling woman, 180 Demophon's advice to Alexander, given from his observations in Augury, 181 A certain Syrian whose name was Eunus, who delighted in Magical enchantments, 182 Megistas Arcanas his Prophecy, 183 Domitian the Emperour commands Allectario to be burnt, and Larginus Proclus to be hang'd, for that they foretold the day of his death, 184 Perusinus the greatest Magitian of all Italy, 185
--	--

The Table of Dreams, Visions, Revelations, &c.

The severall heads are to be found by the figures in the Margin.

Jupiter sendeth a dream to Agamemnon, 1 Cyrus King of Persia his dream, 2 Socrates foresaw in his dreams, that his Scholler Plato would be an excellent Orator and Philosopher, 3 Hippocrates his dream, 4 Alexander descended from Hercules by Catinus, and from Æacus on his Mothers side, by Neoprolemus; his dream, 5 Sophocles his dream, 6 Æneas Seneca his dream, the night after he undertook the Tutorship of Seneca, 7 Fudemus a Cyprian his dream, 8 Aspatia the daughter of Hermotimus, her dream, 9 The Mother of a certain Souldier, her dream, 10 Æsculapius of Athens his prescription	by Oracle to Plutarch an Athenian, 11 Themistocles his Vision, 12 Lucullus going to Hellespont, his Vision, 13 Marcorius, a Physitian of Augustus Cæsar, his dream, 14 Laodice the wife of Seleucus, her dream, 15 Publius Decius, Tribune of the Roman Souldiers, his dream, 16 Gracchus, brother of Tyberius his dream, 17 Calphurnia, wife of Julius Cæsar, her vision predicting his death, 18 Cornelius his foresight of his death, 19 A beholder of Playes, his dream, 20 Great Stortia his dream, 21 Malgepa, an Archer to Galeacius Stortia, his dream, 22 Mark
--	---

THE TABLE.

Sibyllæan books,	34	of the Temple of Apollo at Delphos,	58
The Persians spoyl all the Temples of the Greeks.	35	Sambicus throws down brazen Statues, and sells them.	59
without Cratonis, a Temple dedicated to Juno.	36	Consecrated things taken out of the Temple to pay Souldiers,	60
A great barrenness coming to Pelasgus, they devote the Spring to their gods,	37	Q. Fulvius Flaccus heavily punished for carrying Marble tiles which were to mend the Temple of Juno, to the Temple of warlike Fortune,	61
A Miracle at the Rock of the Posidoniacorians.	38	An horrible slaughter of the Persian coming with intent to spoyl the Temple at Delphos.	62
Diana being angry, sends a Calydonian Boar to destroy the grain in Octolia,	39	The Judgment which followed Theron King of the hither-Spain, upon his abolishing the Temple of Hercules,	63
A Miracle in Arcadia,	40	The judgment which followed the Scythians for their spoyling the Temple of Venus in Urania,	64
Glauco the son of Sisyphus,	41	The revenge which Alexander received for suffering his Souldiers to throng into the Temple of Ceres,	65
Hercules erects a magnificent Temple to Iolaus his Nephew.	42	Pyrthus his punishment for sacriledg,	66
Ciana kills her Father for deflowring her.	43	The punishment of Himilco Prince of Carthage, for his spoyling of Temples,	67
The Temple of Isis.	44	The misery which befell Mithridates for his sacriledg,	68
The Thebans their severity against those who violated their Religion.	45	The misery which befell the Græcians for their spoyling the Temple of Neptune,	69
Pentheus King of the Thebans, was torn in pieces by the Priestesses of Bacchus, for abusing his father,	46	Sparta shaken with frequent impulsions of the Earth,	70
The Potilians extinct for abusing the consecrated things of Bacchus,	47	Cytharocedes flies with his stole to the Altar of Juno,	71
C. Terentius Varro Overseer of the Temples,	48	The Temple of warlike Neptune built by Trophimus and Agamedes,	72
Hannibal and Himilco two Carthaginian Captains, command their Souldiers to cast down Monuments.	49	The Temple of Jupiter Lycæus in Arcadia,	73
The Image of Pallas falls from Heaven,	50	The Temple of Eumenides dedicated by Orestes in Cenycæa, a City of Achaia.	74
The Athenians neglect their god,	51	The punishment of Erisichthon for cutting down the grove of Ceres,	75
The Captains of the Japignians take the Images out of the Temple,	52	The heavy Judgment which befell Cambyses King of Persia, and his Army, for burning the Oracle of Jupiter Ammon,	76
The Æginetæ invading the Epidaurians, carry away the Olive-Tree Images of Damia Auxesia.	53	The destruction of the Persians, who burned the Temple of Ceres.	77
Artabarus a Persian, rushes into Neptune's Temple, and falleth upon his Image.	54
A Souldier of Scipio Africanus minor, attempteth to bereave the Image of Apollo of its golden Vestment.	55
Agamemnon smote a Goat with a dart near Diana her grove.	56
The Fish Pompilus in esteem with Neptune.	57
A certain man steals a piece of money out

The

THE TABLE.

The sad event of revenge; 78 A Grove dedicated to Æsculapius at Coos, 79 The ceremonies which the Virgins dedicated to Diana used. 80 The ceremonies which the Boetians used the feast day of Mercury. 81 A well, consecrated to the Vestal Virgins for the ceasing of the Pestilence. 82 Phalesius a private man buildeth the Temple of Æsculapius, 83 The god of Heliopolis, 84 A man blind from his birth receives his sight by touching Adrian, 85 Ladices sendeth an Image to Venus at Cyrena, for recovering her husband, who was disabled to perform nuptiall rights, 86 Laodomia daughter of Pyrrhus, 87 A Goat offers it self a sacrifice to Jupiter, 88 The Temple of Ceres Micalesia, 89	The Temple of Pluto and Juno, the den of Charon, 90 The Temple of Æsculapius at Epidaurus, a City of Peloponnesus, 91 The Temple of Minerva Ilias, 92 The Temple of Hercules in the Beast-Market at Rome, 93 The Temple of Pallas at Methon, 94 Greece troubled with a drought, consults Pythia, 95 The Sepulchre of Aristomenes at Messene, a City in Achaia in Greece, 96 Apollo Libistinus at Pachinum, a Promontorie of Sicily, 97 The Chappel of Minerva before the Temple of Delphos, 98 The Sabine war waged against the Romans for ravishing the Virgins, 99 The Holy Sheep of the Sun, 100 The superstition of the Philippi inhabiting the furthest part of Scandinavia, 101
---	---

A Table of Satan's wonderfull impostures for establishing of the Idolatrous invocations of Saints departed this life; contrary to the preaching of St. Paul, 2 Theff. 2.

THe miraculous restauration of John Damascen his hand (unjustly cut off by Theodosius the Emperour) at the Image of the blessed Virgin Mary, 1 A Jew delivered from death, by calling upon the god of Sergius, 2 Many cured by the carrying of the dead body of the Virgin Levinua through part of Flanders, 3 Many recover health at the Sepulchre of Pope Martin, 4 One cured at the grave of St. Ladislaus King of Hungary, 5 The Bishop of Prague his finger cut off for the Faith of Christ and thrown into a River, shines in a Fishes belly, 6 Genarius of Beneventum, his head cut off for professing the Faith of Christ, 7	Valens the Emperour an Arrian, 8 The bodies of eleven thousand virgins, 9 John, a devout giver of Alms, 10 Conradus repents heartily of his sinnes, and doth penance, 11 The head of a dead man speaks, 12 How the Abbey of the King's right hand, came to be so called, 13 The blessed Virgin Mary appears to St. Bruno, 14 Nicolaus sees the shape of the blessed Virgin and her Son in the ayr, on the very day wherein her Conception is celebrated, 15 St. Stephen the Martyr appears to Saraholtha, the wife of Grifa Duke of the Hungarians, 16 The Parents of Nicolas Tolentines 107
--	--

THE TABLE.

now a pilgrimage to Barium,	17	The vision of a Priest,	45
Haldricus the Laodienſian Biſhop cured before the Altar of St. Martin,	18	James the ſon of Zebedee appears to Charls the Great,	46
Sergius, a Prince in wealth and authority, cured of a grievous ſickneſſe at the Temple of St. Michael,	19	The appearing of St. Benediſt to Count Sillogoſus in a viſion.	47
John Orphanorropus, brother to Michael Emperour of Paphlagonia, cured at Mira of a grievous ſickneſſe,	20	The Arch-Angel Michael appears in a viſion to Childebert King of France,	48
Henry the ſecond, Emperour, cured (by interceding Saints) of the Stone,	21	Agnes wife to Leopold Marqueſs of Austria, deſires her husband to deſign ſome place to build a Monastery,	49
Manuel, who diſapproved of Images, upon his reſolution to reſtore Images according to the decrees of the Ancients, when he was ſick, was reſtored to health,	22	St. Ambroſe appears threatening miſeries to Cæſar,	50
A Viſion,	23	Colonianus King of the Hungarians, his viſion,	51
A Faſt held in the Church of the Virgin Mary three dayes, to divert the cruel intention of Julian, prevails with God,	24	A voyce out of the Statue of the bleſſed Virgin ſalutes St. Bernard,	52
A King brought to King Edward the third from Jeruſalem,	25	Medericus Abbot of Eduonium, cures a Monk of libidinow cogitations,	53
The Statue of S. Paul weeps,	26	Many cured by a candle, which extinguished, was lighted by the touch of Genovepha,	54
The Mother of Leo of Iconomarum the fiſh King, her Viſion,	27	Pope Leo quençeth a fire by the ſign of the Croſs,	55
Bardus durus his viſion,	28	The corporal of the Challice thrown into a fire, quençeth it.	56
A Viſion diſcovered to Ambroſe the Mediolanenſian Biſhop,	29	A voyce out of the Tomb of S. Martin,	57
Pulcheria, ſiſter to Theodoſia, her viſion,	30	A part of the towel wherewith our Lord wiped his Apoſtles feet before his laſt Supper, brought by Monks from Jeruſalem,	58
An Apparition to Calomerus,	31	St. Peter reſtores a Cock dreſſed and carved, to life again,	59
A ſtrange Miracle obtained by faſting and prayer,	32	The Biſhop of Alexandria by the help of Almighty God converts a Philoſopher,	60
Pope Urban his Viſion,	33	At the Monastery of the holy Mother of God in Conſtantinople, two blind men reſtored to ſight before the Image of the bleſſed Virgin,	61
A Deacon his viſion,	34	The picture of Chriſt which Evagrius made,	62
Elford King of England his viſion,	35	Herbs taken from the Tomb of Nicetius, cure the Feaver,	63
St. Andrew's croſs ſeen in the ayr,	36	A Revelation to Valerius the Coſorannenſian Biſhop,	64
Dogar King of the Scots, his viſion,	37	Miracles wrought at the Sepulchre of Leodegarius,	65
An Apparition to Uladiſlaus and Griſa,	38	Uladiſlaus obtains iſſue by his wife, having
Theodoſius his viſion,	39
Maſſaclerus his viſion,	40
The appearing of St. Andrew the Apoſtle to a Prieſt,	41
St. Theodore appears in aefence of the Romans.	42
Sabinus a moſt pious Patron of Souldiers,	43
The great Sfortia his viſion,	44

THE TABLE.

ving been long barren, by fasting and prayers.	66	a wife,	91
The body of Pedastus translated from the place where formerly it lay, works a Miracle,	67	One carrieth the Body of our Lord at a Paschal Feast whole with him in his mouth,	92
Methodius, a great respecter of holy Images, most unjustly accused by his enemies, is manifestly cleared to the joy of all pious men,	68	The Sacrament put into a chest by a woman, turns into the shape of flesh and blood,	93
St. Peter cures Agatha, virgin and Martyr, her breast torn in pieces for her steadfast confession of the Faith,	70	The reason of the building the Temple, entitled, The Body of Christ,	94
The Mother of God appeareth to a Carpenter,	71	Abundance of blood flows from the blessed Sacrament of the Eucharist, being torn in pieces by Jews,	95
The discovery of the bodies of the Martyrs Dionysius Rusticus and Eleutherius,	72	Pope Vigilius institutes, That Mass for the dead should be performed in an holy place, with holy garments, and a low voyce,	96
A woman delivereth her sins in writing to Basil the Great,	73	An head cast forth of the grave bleedeth,	97
The Image of Christ speaks,	74	Clodoveus King of France, falls mad for his irreligious handling the body of St. Dionysius,	98
The west Goths, assertors of the Arrian Hereſie,	75	A woman loseth her sight for carrying away the shoes of holy Genovepha,	99
Luitprandus King of the Longobards, translates the body of St. Austin out of Sardinia to Ticinum,	76	A woman struck barren for kicking the Tomb of a Saint,	100
Adelbertus cured of a Feaver at the Temple of S. Mary the Virgin,	77	A Robber comes to the Tomb of Venceslaus the fourth Honourable King of Bohemia,	101
Genadius Bishop of Constantinople, rebuketh a Priest for disgracing his profession,	78	The Judgment of God upon one for throwing a stone at the Image of the blessed Virgin Mary,	102
Some of the dust of Hospitius his Sepulchre carried to the Lirinensian Monastery as an holy relique,	79	The Judgment of God upon one who pulled out the eye of an Image,	103
Boniface Bishop of Moguntium slain by the Pagans,	80	A Jew smites the Image of the blessed Virgin with a punniard, out of which blood flows,	104
Eleven hundred virgins martyred by the Huns,	81	Blood flowing from the Image of the blessed Virgin, proves a remedy to many sick people,	105
A Leper sees Christ dedicating a Temple,	83	A Souldier seeking to lay hold on an Image, it turns towards him, and he falls mad,	106
Genovepha dedicateth a Cathedrall Church to St. Dionysius,	84	Two gamesters, one whereof plaid in the Name of God; the other, in the name of the Devil.	107
Houses erected by prayers,	85	Divine vengeance seizeth on Schelkrop, for slashing and thrusting through the Image of Christ and his Saints.	108
The Temple of the divine beautifull virgin at Regenspurg,	86	The Miracles acknowledged, but thought by
The Metensian Bishop,	88
Constantine adoreth the nayls of Christs Cross given him by his Mother,	89
Pope Gregory sends three Sponges to Eudon, Duke of Aquitane,	90
A Monk leaving his Religion, marrieth

THE TABLE.

by some to be done by the power of the devill,	109	Constantine the Great his vision after his refusing to be cured by the blood of Children.	132
The Image of Christ abused by the Jews, bleedeth,	110	St. Nicolas delivers Lotharingus at Constantinople, invocating him.	133
The Judgment of God upon a Jew for abusing the Image of Christ,	111	Biruricus, Arch-deacon of Leons, recovers his sight by fasting and prayers at the Church of Martin, upon his Feast-day.	134
The Image of Christ shot with an Arrow, bleedeth,	112	Pambulis a priest restored to sight at the Image of Albinus in the Church of St. Peter.	135
A golden key of St. Peters.	113	One sick of the Palsie restored to health by St. Martin, and St. Alban.	136
A sacrilegious person struck with a Palsie in the acting of his sacriledg,	114	One sick of the Palsie, restored to health at the Tomb of St. Dunstan.	137
An Hermite his vision at the death of Pandulph Prince of Capua,	115	Cosroe's invocating Sergius, obtains the defence of his Countrey and fecundity of his barren wife,	138
The Judgment of God upon a sacrilegious person,	116	A man falleth sick of the head-ach, by driving a nail into St. Peter's picture,	139
Church-cloathes plundered, when they came to be used by prophane hands, appear bloody.	117	Frenchmen about to translate the body of S. Benedict, are struck blind.	140
A man's house by divine vengeance set on fire for profaning an holy-day.	118	St. Michael the Arch-Angel appears to St. Lawrence.	141
A man's head turned backwards in a fearful manner, for working upon an holy-day.	119	Three Saints appear to a Fisherman.	142
A Jew's cruelty to the Host, and the miraculous issue thereof.	120	Stephen King of Hungary Canonized,	143
The tongue of a prejudiced man tyed,	121	Udilaus King of Hungary Canonized,	144
St. John Baptist relieves the brother of Boleslaus invocating him.	122	Cosroes seeking to take the silver Urn, wherein Sergius the Martyr was laid, was driven away by an heavenly Host,	145
Comnenus the Emperour being sick, is restored by the Image of our Saviour.	123	Saints defend the Isaurians from the Sarazens,	146
Ptolemy seeks for the Cross.	124	A Martyr leadeth the Roman Army,	147
St. Bernard cures a man mortally wounded, by giving him consecrated bread,	125	The Cratonensians use a linnen garment of the Virgin Mary for a flag.	148
Miracles wrought by the bones of Saint Remachus.	126	Amiarus a Saint, assists Godfrey of Bolleiga in the Syriac Expedition,	149
One dispossessed of a devil by part of the straw whereon St. Martin lay.	127	St. George, S. Lawrence, and S. Adrian, assist Henry the second, Emperour.	150
A Noble-woman ignorantly translates the bones of St. Stephen from Jerusalem to Constantinople.	128	The Romans carrying before them the Holy Lance instead of an Ensign, obtain a great victory.	151
A Noble-man belonging to Otho the Emperour, dispossessed of a devil by a chain which had bound St. Peter.	129
Several cured of Feavers by the herbs strewed about the Tomb of Nicetius,	130
The Pestilence at Rome ceaseth upon the building up of the Altar of St. Sebastian in the Church of St. Peter.	131

Auct

91 Lord at a him in his 92 by a no-
 fish and
 93 Temple, en-
 94 om the blisarif, being 95 t Misi for in an ho-
 and a im
 96 we bleedeth,
 97 falls mad
 the body of 98 for carrying ovephs, 99
 icking the 101 ex-ence-
 le King of 101 for thron-
 the blessed
 102 who pull-
 103 the blessed t of which 104 f the blis-
 to many 105 d, or an
 and be 106 id in the
 the name
 107 eltrop, igh the 108 though
 by

THE TABLE.

S. Ambrose the Mediolanensian Guardian Saint.	152	A soul dragged towards Hell by the devil, is freed by S. Benedict.	173
James the Apostle assists the Christian Army.	153	Saints speak out of their Tombs,	174
The Fathers of the Nicene Council consult Musonius and Crisanthus,	154	Paschasius a Deacon of the Apostolical Seat,	175
Christ appeared in the Sacrament to Plergilis a Priest, in that body which the Virgin Mary bore.	155	The spirit of a dead man waits at the bathes.	176
The vision which a Souldier of Rome, who extinct by the Plague, reviving, at large he declareth.	156	Benedict the tenth chief Bishop appearing after his death to John the Portuensian Bishop confesseth, That he was kept from eternal death by Odilones his prayer.	177
A noble child dead for seven dayes, reviveth.	157	John the Anchorite his vision.	178
Vincentius his relation of Tundalus,	158	Maurice the Rothamagensian Bishop brought into the Temple after his death, having received his soul, speaks to them about him.	179
Vincentius his relation of one who being led by the Angel Gabriel after death was restored to life.	159	Marcus of Alexandria obtesting the skull of a dead man in the name of Jesus, causeth it to speak.	180
Genovepha, a virgin of Paris, in an extasse.	160	Cyrillus Hierosolymitanus his vision as he was praying.	181
Erasmus Bishop and Martyr.	161	A young man restored to life by the prayers and tears of Severus.	182
Ursinus sees S. Peter and S. Paul at his death.	162	A man dead revives, relates his vision, and expires.	183
Ezekiel and Daniel appear to a Religious man.	163	Stephen a Roman going to Rome, falls sick and dyes, and revives again, and relateth his vision during the time his soul was separated from his body.	184
The vision of Merulus a religious Monk at Rome,	164	William, a boy of fifteen years of age, his vision.	185
St. Peter the Apostle appears to a Virgin of Christ called Galla, at Rome.	165	In the Sabine Province a Nun strictly observed chastity, but by proccacity defiles her tongue, as appears by a vision after her death, is condignly punished,	186
The Mother of God with a company of Virgins, appears to a Maid.	166
Juvenal and Eleutherius the Martyrs, appear to Probus Reatinus the Bishop.	167	The Sadduces and Epicures confuted, from page 343, to page 358.
The body of St. Jerome, when he had given up his soul, was surrounded with a suddain glorious light.	168	The Arguments of those who deny, that Angels and Devils can take to them a body, confuted; from page 359, to the end.
A Monk wrapt in spirit sees St. Augustine.	169
St. Francis Asiatus his soul departs in form of a Star out of his body.	170
Devils contend with an Angel for the soul of a Monk.	171
Mass celebrated before a dead Monk.	172

FINIS.

