The image shows a page of handwritten musical notation on aged paper. It contains two systems of staves. The first system consists of two staves with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The notation includes complex rhythmic patterns, including sixteenth-note runs and slurs. The second system also consists of two staves with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp. This system features similar complex rhythmic figures and includes several performance markings: and: written above the first staff, and: written above the second staff, and allegro written above the second staff. The paper shows signs of age, including yellowing and some foxing.

A partial view of the adjacent page on the right, showing the continuation of the musical score. It features several staves with handwritten notation, including notes and clefs, though the details are less distinct due to the angle and lighting.
