Handwritten musical score on aged paper, page 6. The score is written in dark ink and consists of several systems of staves. The notation includes treble and bass clefs, a 7/4 time signature, and various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and accidentals. A large section of the score is heavily scribbled out with dark ink, obscuring the original notation. The paper shows signs of age, including some staining and discoloration.

This image shows a page of handwritten musical notation on aged, yellowed paper. The score is written in dark ink and consists of several systems of staves. Each system typically includes a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The notation includes various note values, rests, and dynamic markings. A prominent feature is a large, dark ink blot that obscures a significant portion of the middle section of the page. At the bottom of the page, the word "merz" is written in a cursive hand, accompanied by a circled symbol. The paper shows signs of age, including foxing and some staining.

This image shows a page of handwritten musical notation on aged, yellowed paper. The notation is arranged in approximately 12 horizontal staves. The ink is dark brown or black, and the handwriting is somewhat faded and difficult to read due to the age of the document. The notation includes various note values, stems, and beams, typical of a musical score. A prominent blue circular stamp is located in the lower right quadrant of the page. The stamp contains text in German, including 'STADTBIBLIOTHEK' and 'BADEN-WÜRTTEMBERG'. The paper shows signs of wear, including stains and discoloration, particularly a large brown stain near the center.
