Trio

The image shows ten horizontal musical staves, each consisting of five lines. The staves are arranged vertically and are completely blank, with no notes or markings. The paper is aged and yellowed, with some faint smudges and a small dark spot on the right side of the fifth staff from the top. The overall appearance is that of a page from an old music manuscript book.

The image shows ten horizontal musical staves, each consisting of five lines. The notation is handwritten in dark ink. The first staff begins with a clef-like symbol on the left side. The notes and rests are arranged in a structured manner across the staves, though the specific notes are not clearly legible due to the image's resolution. The paper is aged and shows some staining and wear.
