This block contains the main body of handwritten musical notation on a single page. It consists of approximately 12 staves of music, arranged in two columns of six. The notation is written in dark ink on aged, yellowish paper. The notes are simple, with stems and beams, and some have small circles above them, possibly indicating ornaments or specific rhythmic values. The handwriting is somewhat irregular, characteristic of an early manuscript. The paper shows signs of wear, including some foxing and a small tear at the bottom right corner.

This block shows the right edge of the adjacent page, where several staves of musical notation are visible. The notation is similar to the main page, with staves and notes, though it is partially cut off by the binding.
