The left page of the manuscript book contains several staves of musical notation. The notation includes notes, stems, and clefs. At the bottom of the page, the word "Fine" is written in a cursive hand. Above the word "Fine", the number "100" is written. The paper is aged and shows some staining.

This page is mostly blank, showing the texture and color of the aged paper. There are faint, ghostly traces of musical notation and notes visible, particularly in the upper half of the page, which appear to be bleed-through from the reverse side or very light pencil markings. The paper has several small brown spots and stains, indicating its age.
