No. 1. Walzer

Museum 1810.

Handwritten musical score for a waltz by Franz Schubert, No. 1. The score is written on ten staves, with a grand staff at the top and two staves per system below. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 3/4. The piece is marked "Museum 1810" and includes the tempo marking "Scherzando" and the instruction "Trio". The score concludes with the word "Folapo.".

Partial view of the following page of the manuscript, showing the continuation of the musical score on several staves.
