Alto

Corno 2do

Ann. No. 1429

1

Handwritten musical score for Alto and Corno 2do. The score consists of eight staves of music. The first staff is for the Alto and the second for the Corno 2do. The music is written in a single system with a common time signature. The notation includes various note values, rests, and dynamic markings such as mi and mi. There are also some numerical markings like 5, 4, 2, 3, and 4. The paper is aged and shows some wear.

Op. 17:

Handwritten musical score for three parts: Hand, Clarinete, and Trio. The score is written on six staves. The first two staves are for the Hand part, the next two for the Clarinete part, and the final one for the Trio part. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings like pp, mf, and piu. There are also some numerical markings above notes, possibly indicating fingerings or breath marks.

Ad. 2:

Finale

Handwritten musical score for a piece titled "Finale". The score consists of six staves of music, all in treble clef. The first staff begins with the tempo marking "Allegro" and a 4/4 time signature. The second staff includes the dynamic marking "piano". The fourth staff has a "20" written above it, possibly indicating a measure number. The fifth staff has the dynamic marking "pianissimo". The sixth staff concludes with the instruction "Segue il Segno" and a double bar line.

This image shows a page of aged, yellowish paper with ten horizontal musical staves. Each staff is composed of five parallel lines. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor foxing and small dark spots. The staves are arranged in a vertical column, filling most of the page's width and height. There is no musical notation or text on the page.
