Sonata. 2da.

This image shows a page of handwritten musical notation on ten staves. The notation is written in dark ink on aged, yellowish paper. The first five staves contain a complex piece of music with various note values, rests, and clefs. The notation includes many beamed notes and some larger, more decorative notes. The last two staves (the eighth and ninth) feature a different style of notation, possibly representing a specific instrument or a different part of the composition, with large, stylized notes and some circular markings. The tenth staff is mostly empty, with only a few faint lines of notation visible on the left side.
