Andante. Beethoven.

This page contains a handwritten musical score for piano, consisting of five systems of staves. The notation is in a cursive hand and includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings. The first system begins with a treble clef, a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and a 3/4 time signature. The score is marked with 'p' (piano) and 'cres.' (crescendo). The notation is dense, with many beamed notes and slurs. The piece concludes with a double bar line and a fermata over the final note.
