Aria allegro.

The first part of the score consists of four staves of handwritten musical notation. The notation includes various note values (quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes), rests, and accidentals. There are several 'X' marks above the staves, likely indicating specific measures or sections. The music is written in a single system across the four staves.

Trio.

The Trio section consists of two staves of handwritten musical notation. The notation includes various note values, rests, and accidentals. There are several 'X' marks above the staves, likely indicating specific measures or sections. The music is written in a single system across the two staves.
