Ad. 10. Cor

Handwritten musical score on page 21. The score consists of approximately 12 staves of music. The notation includes various note values, rests, and clefs. Performance markings are present in red ink, including "arco" (written under the second staff) and "pizz." (written above the sixth staff). The music appears to be a single melodic line with some accompaniment. The handwriting is in black ink on aged paper.
