New Works,

PUBLISHED BY

MESSRS. SAUNDERS AND OTLEY,
CONDUIT STREET.

I.
Second Edition.—In 2 vols. post 8vo, with Fifty-two Etchings by the Author,
CHARACTERISTICS OF WOMEN.

BY MRS. JAMESON,

Author of "THE DIARY OF AN ENNUYEE," &c.

"A beautiful and touching commentary on the heart and mind of woman."—Lit. Gazette.

"Two truly delightful volumes—the most charming of all the works of a charming writer."—Blackwood.

II.

In 2 vols. post 8vo,

TRAITS AND TRADITIONS OF PORTUGAL.

BY MISS PARDOE.

"Miss Pardoe's two volumes are replete with touches of refined taste, and descriptions that are as vivid as they are femininely elegant. We hardly know on what part to fix the focus of our approbation, but perhaps the monkish memorials are, for many reasons, the most interesting. We positively declare that, notwithstanding the countless volumes that we have read on this subject, Miss Pardoe's work has made us more an faul in the matter, than any other we have yet seen."—Metropolitan.

"Miss Pardoe's work is a series of lively pictures. Its value consists in its graphic delineation of Portuguese manners. We recommend these volumes to all who love vigorous sketches, racy anecdotes, and interesting traits of character."—Athenaeum.

"We dismiss these attractive volumes with warm praise and congratulations, which we are convinced their readers will confirm."—Lit. Gazette.

III.

In 3 vols. post 8vo,

PETER SIMPLE.

By the Author of "THE NAVAL OFFICER," "THE KING'S OWN," &c.

"This is the best work Capt. Marryat has yet produced."—Atlas.

"Peter Simple is certainly the most amusing of Capt. Marryat's amusing novels; a species of picture quite unique; a class by themselves, full of humour, truth, and graphic sketching."—Lit. Gazette.

"This is an admirable work, and worthy of the noble service it is written to illustrate. It has other excellencies beyond being a delightfully readable book, and presenting a true and vivid sketch of scenery, and natural life and adventures. It is unrivalled amongst modern productions as a work of art. The story, or frame-work, though slight, is constructed with an almost epic unity; the principal characters, the leading events, even a mere incident, bearing upon the final catastrophe. And then the characters,—what admirable creations, not only the more conspicuous, but even the inferior agents."—Spectator.

IV.

Second Edition.—In 3 vols. post 8vo,

POLISH TALES.

THE CONFEDERATES OF LUBIONKI, THE MILL OF MARIEMONT, AND THE BEE FARM.

BY MRS. CHARLES GORE.

"These Tales are distinguished by the same vigorous genius, and the same eloquence and accuracy of style, which characterised Mrs. Gore's beautiful 'Hungarian Tales.'"—Monthly Review.

V.

In 2 vols. post 8vo,

CECIL HYDE.

A NOVEL.

"This is a clever book; a light and lively sketch of fashionable society, by a man of fashion."—Spectator.

VI.

In 2 vols. post 8vo,

DRAMATIC SCENES FROM REAL LIFE.

BY LADY MORGAN.

"Every character in this work speaks for itself in Nature's purest and best language; the witty are eminently witty, the ridiculous richly absurd; every personage that appears on the scene is painted to the life."—Metropolitan.

VII.

In 3 vols. post 8vo,

BARNADISTON.

A Tale of the Seventeenth Century.

"The costumes and manners of the times of which the author treats, are preserved with the accuracy of a contemporary portrait painter."—Metropolitan.

VIII.

In 2 vols. post 8vo,

SIR GUY DE LUSIGNAN;

A TALE OF ITALY.

BY MISS KNIGHT,

Author of "Latium," "Dinarbas," &c.

"This work is from the pen of a most estimable Lady who has for many years occupied important stations in the British Court. Some years since she resided much in Italy, so that the work she has here produced has doubtless been enriched by her observation as well as study. It is a tale of the days of Chivalry, and, it is scarcely necessary to add of unexceptionable moral tendency."—St. James's Chronicle.

New Works,

PUBLISHED BY

MESSRS. SAUNDERS AND OTLEY,
CONDUIT STREET.

IX.

In 1 vol. post 8vo, price 16s. bound,

MR. LODGE'S NEW PEERAGE, FOR 1834.

The New Edition, considerably augmented, and corrected to the present time, from the personal communications of the nobility.

"A work which corrects all errors of former works."—Times.
"It derives great value from the high authority of Mr. Lodge. The plan is excellent; and the work brought down to the last creation of Peers."—Literary Gazette.
"We can safely pronounce this to be the readiest, the most useful, and exactest of modern works on the subject."—Spectator.

X.

In one volume,

THE LANGUAGE OF FLOWERS.

With beautifully coloured Plates.

"In Turkey," observes Lady Montagu, "you may, through the assistance of these EMBLEMS, either quarrel, reproach, or send letters of passion, friendship, or even news, without ever inking your fingers; no fruit or flower being without a verse attached to it."

XI.

In 2 vols. post 8vo,

THE INFIRMITIES OF GENIUS.

BY DR. MADDEN.

Author of "TRAVELS IN TURKEY," &c.

"A very valuable and interesting work, full of new views and curious deductions."—Lit. Gazette.
"As a medical man and a traveller, Dr. Madden has had opportunities of studying human nature on a wide scale. His work is a desideratum for the literary classes of society, and we strongly recommend it to the attention of our professional brethren."—Medico-Chirurgical Journal.
"One of the most pleasing works that has for a long time issued from the press; full of novelty and originality of thought."—Tait's Mag.

XII.

Second Edition, in 2 vols. 8vo, Plates,

RECORDS OF TRAVELS IN TURKEY, GREECE, &c.,

In the Years 1829, 1830, and 1831;

And of a Cruise in The BLACK SEA with the CAPITAN PASHA.

BY ADOLPHUS SLADE, ESQ.

"We can assure our readers that no records of travels in modern times with which we are acquainted, present so many features of general attraction as the volumes before us."—Monthly Review.
"One of the most amusing and instructing of Oriental travellers."—Spectator.
"The work before us supplies the best description of this remarkable nation."—Courier.
"These volumes are full of highly entertaining and curious matter."—Court Journal.

XIII.

New Edition, in 3 vols. post 8vo,

THE WONDROUS TALE OF ALROY.

"Massive grandeur, luxuriant magnificence, and fancy absolutely prodigal of its wealth, are the most characteristic features in this extraordinary emanation of creative genius."—Foreign Quarterly.
"Genius is stamped on every page."—Athenaeum.

XIV.

HOLY BREATHINGS,

A Series of Morning and Evening Prayers.

BY LADY CHARLOTTE BURY.

"The spirit which pervades these solemn addresses to the Almighty, bespeaks such a sense and feeling of the blessed hopes and prospects of pure Christianity, as do great credit to the heart and understanding of the noble Author."—Quarterly Theological Review.

XV.

New Edition, price 12s.
