Handwritten musical notation on a single page, consisting of ten staves. The notation is a form of square neumes on a four-line staff. The text is written in a Gothic script, appearing as bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is: "Credo in unum deum patrem omnipotentem factorem caeli et terrae visibilia et invisibilia qui ex patre filium unigenitum et coeternum sibi similem et deum deum qui ex patre et filio simul procedit et qui cum patre et filio simul adoratur et conglorificatur qui locutus est per prophetas et qui cum patre et filio simul procedit et qui cum patre et filio simul adoratur et conglorificatur".
