Mice Polka. Piano Forte. von Strauß.

The image shows a handwritten musical score for a piece titled "Mice Polka" by Strauss. The score is written in ink on aged paper and consists of five systems of music. Each system has a treble and bass staff. The first system includes a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a 2/4 time signature. The music is marked with "Piano Forte" and "ff". The score features various musical notations, including notes, rests, and dynamic markings. The word "Trio" is written in a decorative script at the end of the fifth system. The page number "Nro. 134" is printed in the bottom right corner.

Nro. 134

A page of ten blank musical staves, each consisting of five horizontal lines. The paper is aged and yellowed. Faint, ghostly impressions of handwriting are visible across the page, likely from the reverse side or an adjacent page. The staves are arranged vertically, with a small gap between the bottom of one staff and the top of the next.
