The first system of handwritten musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is a single treble clef staff with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 4/8 time signature. It contains a few notes and rests. The middle and bottom staves are connected by a brace on the left, indicating a grand staff. The middle staff is an alto clef staff, and the bottom staff is a bass clef staff. The music includes various note values, rests, and dynamic markings. A handwritten instruction "ohne Pedal" is written below the middle staff. The notation is in ink on aged, slightly stained paper.

An empty grand staff system consisting of three staves (treble, alto, and bass clefs) connected by a brace on the left.
