The first system of the musical score consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line is written in a treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature. It contains two lines of lyrics. The piano accompaniment is written in a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with a key signature of one sharp and a common time signature. The music features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some rests. A 'rit.' (ritardando) marking is placed above the vocal line towards the end of the system. The piano part includes a 'Ped.' (pedal) marking at the end.

The second system of the musical score continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line is marked with Roman numerals 'I' and 'II' above the first two notes, indicating first and second endings. The tempo is marked 'langsam.' (ad libitum). The piano accompaniment continues with similar rhythmic patterns. A 'pp' (pianissimo) marking is present in the piano part. The system concludes with a double bar line.

Three empty musical staves, consisting of a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) and a single treble clef staff, are provided for the third system of the score.
