Ludwig Beumann

Three blank systems of five-line music staves, intended for the vocal part of the score.
