Handwritten text in a medieval script, likely Gothic or Carolingian minuscule. The text is arranged in approximately 15 horizontal lines. The ink is dark, and the parchment shows signs of age, including some staining and discoloration. The text appears to be a liturgical or legal document, possibly a prayer or a decree, given the formal structure and the use of some larger initial letters. The script is dense and consistent throughout the page.

Fragment of text from the adjacent page, showing the right edge of the parchment. The text is partially cut off but includes some recognizable words and initials, such as "et", "in", and "de". The script is consistent with the main page.
