Handwritten text in a medieval script, likely Gothic or similar, covering the entire page. The text is arranged in dense, vertical columns. The parchment is heavily stained and discolored, particularly at the top and bottom edges, where the original text is obscured by dark, irregular marks. There are several large, irregular stains and areas of discoloration, especially near the top and bottom edges of the page. The text is written in a dark ink, and the script is a dense, cursive Gothic hand. The page is bound on the left side, with visible stitching and some wear on the leather cover. The overall appearance is that of an ancient, well-used manuscript page.
