The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and contains a series of chords and melodic fragments. The lower staff is in bass clef and provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines. The system concludes with two first endings, labeled '1:' and '2:'.

FINALE.

The second system is marked 'FINALE.' and begins with a forte (f) dynamic. It features two staves with complex rhythmic patterns and dynamic shifts, including a piano (p) section. The notation includes various note values and rests.

The third system continues the musical piece with two staves. It shows a continuation of the melodic and harmonic themes established in the previous systems, with detailed notation for notes, rests, and articulation.

The fourth system consists of two staves, further developing the musical material. It includes a variety of note values and rests, maintaining the piece's rhythmic and harmonic structure.

The fifth system continues the piece with two staves, featuring more complex rhythmic patterns and harmonic textures. The notation is dense with notes and rests.

The sixth and final system of music on this page consists of two staves. It leads to the conclusion of the piece with a final cadence and a double bar line. The page number '366' is visible at the bottom center.
