PIANOFORTE.

The first system of the musical score consists of a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line is written in a single staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. The piano accompaniment is written in two staves, with the right hand in a treble clef and the left hand in a bass clef. The music is in a common time signature and features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some rests.

The second system of the musical score includes lyrics in both German and English. The vocal line is written in a single staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. The piano accompaniment is written in two staves, with the right hand in a treble clef and the left hand in a bass clef. The music is in a common time signature and features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some rests.
