HEDIO, Caspar (1494-1552). Von dem Zehenden. Ob und wie man den zugeben pflichtig sey. Mit Sendtbrief an das Christlich heufflein im Rinckgaw, Mentzer Bistumb. Small 4to. 12 leaves. Title within large historiated woodcut border. Modern half vellum.

[Altenburg,] "Gabriel Kantz von Schwebischen Hall", 1525.

RARE EDITION of an important pamphlet by the Strassburg Reformer Caspar Hedio, containing two sermons on tithes which he delivered on the 20th and 21st of November, 1524, at the request of his former parish at Mayence, not long before the peasants' war broke out. About a year before, Caspar Hedio had left Mayence for Strassburg.

These sermons are preceded by a dedicatory address to the 'Christlichen heufflein im Rinckgaw' (the Little Group of Christians of the Rhine District), dated Strassburg on S. Catherine's day (25 November), in which he again treats the problem of tithes in more direct terms. This address (but not the sermons) is reprinted with an introduction by Fr. Otto, 'Kasp. Hedios Sendtbrief an die Rheingauer vom 25. November 1524' in Annalen d. Vereins f. Nassauische Altertumskunde u. Geschichtsforschung, vol. 17, 1882, pp. 16-23.

A good copy.
