A detailed black and white woodcut-style illustration on the title page of a book. The scene is framed by a Gothic architectural setting with pointed arches and decorative stonework. In the upper left, a bearded man with a long white robe and a staff stands behind a low wall. In the upper right, a woman in a long, flowing dress stands with her hands clasped. In the center foreground, a man in a long robe sits on the floor, holding a scroll and looking upwards. In the lower right foreground, a nude figure lies on the floor, playing a harp. The overall style is reminiscent of medieval or early Renaissance book illustrations.
