Luxur

Ave

The page features a large, ornate initial 'L' in red with blue floral patterns. To its left is a blue and white goat standing on a small patch of ground, holding a long pole with a red cross on a white flag. The text 'Luxur' is written in red below the goat, and 'Ave' is written in black below the 'L'. The musical notation consists of black square notes on red four-line staves.

runt isto lasu

as et candidas e

The second line of text is 'as et candidas e'. It is preceded by a musical staff with black square notes. The notes are arranged in a descending sequence from the top line to the middle line.

as fece runt p̄nsa

The third line of text is 'as fece runt p̄nsa'. The 'p̄' is written in red. It is preceded by a musical staff with black square notes. The notes are arranged in a descending sequence from the top line to the middle line.

The fourth line of text is a double bar line '||'. It is preceded by a musical staff with black square notes. The notes are arranged in a descending sequence from the top line to the middle line.
